

Racial Equity Accountability Project Team Member Application

The Minnesota Northwest Continuum of Care (NWCoC) is seeking applicants to join the Racial Equity Accountability Project (REAP). The Racial Equity Accountability Project (REAP) is a two-year effort, hosted by the Minnesota Engagement on Shelter and Housing, to advance racial equity and reduce racial disparities in Minnesota's homeless response system by infusing technical support, coordination, shared learning, and accountability into regional planning across the state. Please complete the form to apply for membership. Meetings will be held monthly, and team members must be committed to devoting a maximum of 8 hours per month to the Racial Equity Accountability Project. Questions on the application can be directed to Margaret Krueger, margaretk@nwmf.org
